

Death of Captain Peter Shipp

With sadness we report the death today [Thursday 22 July 2010] of Captain Peter Shipp.

Peter was one of our most distinguished members and colleagues and served with great distinction in the South Australian ports as Harbour Master/ Marine Pilot in the outports and Port Adelaide. Peter sailed for many years with ASP and served on the first generation container ships. Peter, prior to his retirement, was the General Manager Marine Operations for the South Australian Ports Corporation/Flinders Ports. Peter was in poor health for some time.

As we get more news we will pass on to members via the AMOU web site
